

2nd Annual Youth Workforce Development Conference

More than 300 educators, youth, workforce development professionals, nonprofit leaders and private sector partners are expected to attend.

Registration will be available soon.
Hold April 27, 2007 and plan to attend!

Mark your calendars and plan to attend!
April 27, 2007

Pittsburgh – a place where need, opportunity, talent and training converge to create our future. Where do you fit in? Attend the Youth Workforce Development Conference and find out. Workshops and speakers will create a forum for sharing the most current thinking and strategies for building a vibrant and prepared workforce for Pittsburgh's future. Separate learning tracks are planned for youth and adults. Conference attendees will gain increased skills, new perspectives, and inspiration in the area of youth workforce development.

Keynote speakers:

Heather Weiss, Ph.D.,

Harvard Family Research Project

Edward De Jesus,

Youth Development and Research Fund

New addition!

Youth Career Fair at the Omni William Penn Hotel on April 28th in collaboration with YouthLINK of Goodwill Industries and Eastside YouthLINK. YouthLINK

Sponsored jointly by:

UA
YouthWorks